Happy Moon Festival

This important festival is celebrated this Friday by millions of people across Asia and in Burwood.

In the past week I was pleased to join local kids at the Emerald Square colouring competition and share mooncakes with older people at the CASS English class and on Saturday I'll be enjoying the New Impression Moon Festival in Burwood Park.

Public art consultation

As Mayor, I am committed to introducing various forms of art to beautify streets and parks, build a vibrant culture and increase a sense of local pride.

During my recent visit to Woodstock, I heard enthusiastic feedback on a proposed mural on the side of the Fitzroy Hall next to the Woodstock Community Centre car park.

Club Grants

Council has received three Club Burwood grants to continue its recognition of, and support for the local community.

These grants will go toward delivering the Seniors Festival 2020 ($8,000), the Schools & Communities Expo ($7,500) and the Volunteers Expo ($5,000).

Congratulations to all the recipients. Thank you to Club Burwood Group for your ongoing contribution to the community.

Exciting new look

Burwood has a new identity to reflect today's Burwood – a vibrant, diverse and dynamic place, rich with heritage.

The six sections in the letter 'B', are for the suburbs of the LGA and the colours represent community priorities of harmony and friendship (pink), trust and stability (light blue), creativity and vibrancy (orange), heritage and heart (red), the natural environment (green) and energy and optimism (yellow).

Sunday Artisans Market

The Woodstock Artisans Market showcases designers and makers of unique, handmade homewares, fashion, art, ceramics, jewellery and more. With around 70 stallholders, shoppers can fossick for special gifts in the relaxed, beautiful surroundings of this heritage gem. There's live entertainment, food traders and coffee on site. Free entry.

When: Sunday 22 September
10am to 3pm

Where: Woodstock,
22 Church St Burwood
