Serving our community

Burwood's cultural diversity was on full display at the recent Lunar New Year celebrations, with thousands flocked to Burwood Park to enjoy entertainment, cultural activities, and delicious food.

The event was a cultural celebration which highlighted the tremendous contribution the Chinese Australian community has made to our local area.

As Mayor I am passionate about delivering the best services and initiatives to our vibrant community; from celebrating our diversity with events such as Lunar New Year to delivering major infrastructure projects for all residents to enjoy.

Council continues to place a strong focus on upgrading our local roads, footpaths, kerbs and gutters. You can see a list of current works in the news section on the right of the page.

You can also view our capital works schedule on our interactive online mapping system on Council website.

Last Saturday I hosted a street meeting at Martin Reserve, Croydon Park. Thanks to all the residents who came down and shared ideas on how to make Burwood a better place to live, work and enjoy.

International Women's Day

Last Thursday our community came together to celebrate International Women's Day at Council's Career Connections Expo.

This event provided practical help to women wanting to sharpen their job seeking and interview skills.
