Burwood Park Memorial Arch

Remembering 100 Years of Anzac
MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR OF BURWOOD

This morning we gather in front of the iconic Burwood Memorial Arch at sunrise to mark one hundred years since the landing of the First Australian Imperial Force in Gallipoli; the start of the Anzac Legend.

On this special occasion, we come together as a community to remember those Australians who have paid the ultimate sacrifice defending our freedom and recognise current service personnel serving in peace keeping operations overseas.

During this morning’s Dawn Service, we will be unveiling a memorial sculpture to commemorate this important centenary event.

The sculpture was commissioned by the Burwood Anzac Centenary Years’ Commemorative Service Committee, Burwood Council and Burwood RSL in honour of the 937 men and 4 women from the area who enlisted to serve from 1914-1918.

Watching over the Burwood Memorial Arch, the sculpture will become a permanent symbol for our local heroes and their stories of courage, endurance and mateship which emerged from such tragic yet defining moments in our nation’s young history.

We have made a strong commitment to ensuring that these stories and the Anzac Legend are passed on to the younger generations in our community so that the sacrifices of those who served in World War I are never forgotten.

Throughout the year, Council has been working with local schools, the Burwood Youth Advisory Group and members of the Committee as part of our AnzacConnect initiative.

The initiative helps share local stories and the meaning of Anzac with younger members of our community so that we can pass on the values exhibited by our Diggers to our future generations. A short film on AnzacConnect will be presented during today’s service.

Over the next four years, we will be honouring the Centenary of Anzac through a range of community-wide services, memorials and initiatives.

I extend my gratitude to those involved in today’s service including the Burwood Anzac Centenary Years’ Commemorative Service Committee, our local schools, local community groups and Council staff. Your continuing contribution has ensured that the Anzac legacy remains alive and I look forward to your support over the next four years.

Mayor of Burwood
MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF BURWOOD RSL SUB BRANCH

On behalf of the Burwood Anzac Centenary Years’ Commemorative Service Committee, I invite you to join us in remembering the fallen.

Our nation commemorates ANZAC Day 25 April the date in 1915 when 20,000 Australians and New Zealanders ventured ashore the Gallipoli Peninsula.

This date is now permanently etched in Australian history as a day of remembrance for all Australians killed while undertaking active service.

The Burwood Anzac Commemorative March and Dawn Service endeavours to keep the memories alive and pass on the ANZAC legacy to future generations.

The Committee would like to thank Burwood Council, local schools and organisations as well as the community for the continuing support.

A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
Lay Minister Rosemary King
St Paul’s Anglican Church, Burwood

We thank you, Heavenly Father, for the efforts being made by the nations of the world to seek peace and happier relations with each other and we pray that you will further these endeavours. Also we praise you for the spirit in men and women which inspires them to scorn the way of safety and venture all in the cause of freedom and right; for all great and noble acts known and unknown, which we believe by your mercy will bring about the ultimate conquest of the forces of evil which have always threatened the peace and security of the world.

Through Jesus Christ Our Lord, Amen.

ANZAC REQUIEM
Alex Pirie
President of Burwood RSL Sub Branch

On the morning of 25 April 1915, Australian and New Zealand troops landed under fire on Gallipoli. It was then and in the battles which followed that the Anzac tradition was formed.

On this day, above all days, we remember all those who served our nation in times of war.

We remember with pride their courage, their compassion and their comradeship. We remember what they accomplished for Australia, and indeed for the freedom of mankind.

We honour those who died or were disabled in the tragedy of war. They adorn our nation’s history.

We remember those who fell amidst the valleys and the ridges of Gallipoli, on the terraced hills of Palestine, in France and Belgium, on the sands of the North Africa desert, amidst the mountains and the olive groves of Greece, Crete and Syria, in the skies over Europe, in Singapore, in the jungles of Malaysia, Indonesia, Papua New Guinea and the Pacific Islands, in Korea and Vietnam, in later conflicts and in peacekeeping, in the skies and seas in many parts of the world, and on our own soil and in our sea lanes.

We remember those who suffered as prisoners of war, and those who died in captivity.

We remember staunch friends and allies, especially those who fought alongside us on that first day on Gallipoli in 1915.

Our servicemen and women have left us a splendid heritage. May we and our successors prove worthy of their sacrifice.

Let us give thanks for the sculpture and all that it stands for. May those who come to this place find peace and hope in moments of solitude. May they remember the service and sacrifice made by our fellow citizens in defence of this great nation. May they be reminded of duty, service beyond self and tender care for those who suffer.

SONG: WE ARE AUSTRALIAN

Burwood Girls High School

We are one, but we are many
And from all the lands on earth we come
We share a dream and sing with one voice:
I am, you are, we are Australian

We are one, but we are many
And from all the lands on earth we come
We share a dream and sing with one voice:
I am, you are, we are Australian

We are one, but we are many
And from all the lands on earth we come
We share a dream and sing with one voice:
I am, you are, we are Australian

I am, you are, we are Australian.

THE LORD’S PRAYER
Lay Minister Rosemary King
St Paul’s Anglican Church, Burwood

Our Father, whom art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name,
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil:
For thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.

Amen.

HYMN: ABIDE WITH ME
Elizabeth Lowrencev

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide!
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life’s little day;
Earth’s joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter’s pow’r?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness
Where is death’s sting? Where grave Thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

LEST WE FORGET
THE ODE OF REMEMBRANCE
Read by Alex Pirie

Their glory shall never die,
The whole wide world is their sepulchre
Their epitaphs are written upon the hearts of mankind
And whenever there is talk of noble deeds
Their names will be held in grateful remembrance.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

We will remember them. (Repeat together)

LET US MAKE COMMEMORATION OF THE FALLEN
Lay Minister Rosemary King
St Paul’s Anglican Church, Burwood

O Lord, you lover of souls, who through the mouth of your prophet of old has declared that all souls are yours, we thank you for the brave and faithful dead, who willingly laid down their lives on the battlefields in the war or succumbed to the perils of the deep or of the air.

We bless you for the dauntless courage of those defenders of our Commonwealth and of our freedom who have fallen in the cause of Truth and Righteousness. In your hands, Heavenly Father, we leave their departed spirits.

Grant that we may be strengthened to follow their good example in faithfulness and endurance if necessary, even unto death, so that we may together with them be found worthy of the crown of everlasting life.

Through Jesus Christ Our Lord, Amen.
SONG: THE RECESSIONAL
Burwood Girls High School

God of our fathers, known of old
Lord of our far-flung battle-line,
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine-
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget - lest we forget!

The tumult and shouting dies;
The Captains and the Kings depart;
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget - lest we forget!

NATIONAL ANTHEM: ADVANCE AUSTRALIA FAIR
Burwood Girls High School

Australians all let us rejoice,
For we are young and free;
We’ve golden soil and wealth for toil;
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in nature’s gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history’s page, let every stage Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia Fair.

Beneath our radiant Southern Cross
We’ll toil with hearts and hands;
To make this Commonwealth of ours
Renowned of all the lands;
For those who’ve come across the seas
We’ve boundless plains to share;
With courage let us all combine
To Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia Fair.

THE BUGLER FROM BURWOOD
The story of a local boy born in Burwood, turned a national hero.

Leonard Francis Hall

Burwood, Sydney 9 May 1897 – 24 February 1999

Leonard Francis Hall was born in Burwood on 9 May 1897 and was part of the celebrated 10th Light Horse Regiment which included some of the best riders in the world.

Hall enlisted in the First Australian Imperial Force in 1915 after the Major of the Light Horse Regiment heard him play the bugle and begged him to join as their regiment did not have a bugler.

As Hall boarded the boat to the Great War with his bugle in hand, that he would not play again, he plucked an emu plume from his slouch hat and thrust it into the hands of a girl waving in the crowd.

When Hall landed at Gallipoli in the former Ottoman Empire he was the lead machine-gunner in the impossible assault of the Battle of Nek. This was the worst battle of the Gallipoli campaign with 879 of his fellow diggers killed.

After evacuating the Gallipoli peninsula, Hall fought in the Battle of Beersheba in Ottoman Syria in 1917 where he was injured by a bomb which killed nine out of his 14-man crew and his horse, Q6.

The courage he exhibited during this campaign saw him picked by Thomas Edward Lawrence (Lawrence of Arabia) to help the British Empire in the Capture of Damascus in 1918.

Hall returned to Australia in 1919 and was met by a woman who said, “Excuse me sir, would you like your plume back?” Hall married his feather caretaker two years later and they had two children.

Leonard Francis Hall died in Perth in 24 February 1999, aged 101 years, after living a life of perseverance, strength and heroism.
